

GUIDE TO THE NEW YORK CRIMINAL BAR ASSOCIATION CLE FINANCIAL AID

INTRODUCTION

From our inception 50 years ago, providing high-quality, practical, immediately useful and engaging training programs to our members and other interested criminal advocates has been one of our primary core missions. This professional education is offered to strengthen advocacy skills both in and out of the courtroom; to support reform and improvement of criminal law and procedure; and to address conditions affecting our clients and their families in the court system and correctional facilities.

Since our purpose is education, not fundraising, the New York Criminal Bar Association (NYCBA) offers many programs every year completely tuition free as a service to the working bar. We intentionally price our program fees to offer timely, important and helpful training at levels that are lower than virtually all New York Metropolitan area bar and defender organizations. We also regularly offer discounted rates for state and federal assigned counsel (NYC Assigned Counsel Plan ['18-B'] panel and CJA panel members).

Thus you can be certain that all financial aid applications for New York Criminal Bar Association CLE programs will be guided by our commitment to ensuring that anyone who wants to attend may do so regardless of budget or financial constraints.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FREE ATTENDANCE AT NYCBA PROGRAMS

The following attorneys may attend NYCBA CLE programs program free of charge: 1) current 2025 NYCBA members; 2) attorneys employed by institutional defender offices; and 3) unemployed attorneys.

DISCOUNTED RATE FOR ASSIGNED COUNSEL

When a discounted program fee is offered for federal and state assigned counsel, it will be clearly noted in the program flyer and promotional materials; and the NYCBA website payment portal will include the reduced-price option.

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATIONS

Anyone who is not eligible to attend NYCBA CLE programs free of charge, and who cannot pay the program fee or discounted assigned counsel rate (where applicable) may apply for Financial Aid. Relief may include a further reduction of the program fee, or even a full waiver of the fee.

Requests for financial assistance should include a statement explaining the applicant's financial hardship, including annual income, outstanding obligations, nature of practice (especially public service or government employment), and all other circumstances preventing them from paying the program fee (even at a reduced rate) or joining the NYCBA.

Program fee discounts will be determined on a sliding scale, based on annual income (e.g., annual income below $50,000 – 75% discount, income below $75,000 – 50% discount, etc.), along with all other relevant financial factors.

Applicants should be submitted by email to Andrew Eibel, Chair of the NY Criminal Bar Association CLE Committee at slybels@gmail.com no later than THREE (3) business days before the program.

The CLE Committee and NYCBA officers will review applications and provide a written determination, including reasons, within 24 – 36 business hours.

REDUCED FEE NYCBA MEMBERSHIP

To make membership as accessible as possible, NYCBA offers a reduced rate membership of $75.00 (a 50% discount) for anyone with an annual income of $75,000 or less. You can easily join through the membership page on our website, or by using this handy link:
